Dear Sir

I am this moment favored by yours of yesterday, covering Mrs Springs letter to you - I am sorry to take up more of your time on that subject - but am led to conceive from the tenor of her letter, that she alludes to some former transaction, in Doctor Bennets life time - which seems to have been closed, & not to the Certificate for arrears of Clothing - however if I have mistaken the matter you will be so obliging as to set me right -

I am Dear Sir

Your most obed^t.

Humble servant

Dear Sir

I am at this moment favored by yours of yesterday, covering Mrs Springs letter to you - I am sorry to take up more of your time on that subject - but am led to conceive from the tenor of her letter, that she alludes to some former transaction in Doctor Binney's life time - which seems to have been closed and not to the Certificate for arrears of Clothing - however if I have mistaken the matter you will be so obliging as to set me right -

I am Dear Sir

Your most Obed^t

Humble Servant
