Nov: 7. 1857

Dear Sir:

I invite your particular attention to the negligent and imperfect manner in which the cancellation of postage stamps is, sometimes at least, performed in your office. It should always be thoroughly done, and in a manner so plain and visible as not to be mistaken.

I am respectfully,
Your obt. servt.

Horatio King
Inspector. P. M. Genl.

Postmaster,
Athens
Bradford Co., Pa.

Post Master General
