Philad^a July 23rd 1784

Sir

M^r: Beatty, late a Lieutenant in the Pennsylvania line, served several years with honor —

I take the liberty of recommending him as a very deserving young Gentleman, to your Excellency & the hon^{ble} Council, and am of opinion he will do great Justice to an appointment of Lieutenant, in the Corps to be raised, should that rank be conferred on him —

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your Excellency

Most obedient Servant

This Excellency

J^r: Dickinson Esquire

W^m: Irvine

His Excellency

John Dickinson Esquire

President
