Capt John Montgomery to Major Tho. Lloyd 1758

June 6. 1758

Sr

125

I Rec<sup>d</sup> your bearing Date the 3<sup>d</sup> of this Instant, Agreeable to your Letters you wrote, which is Desiring that I shou<sup>d</sup> march my company to Lancaster on Friday Next there to be reviewed, I was so late in getting my Commission that most of the men were enlisted by others that has been earlier Commissioned which makes the men scarce to be had, I am still getting some, but it is meerly impossible for me to raise my company as speedy as I am Desirous, but I am making all the best in my power, I am not expecting my company to be the last in reviewing, I have between Lieutenant Insign & myself enlisted about 40 men, and as for the remaining part of my company I shall do all that possibly I can do to get them made up, I cannot march to Lancaster on Friday Next as you have wrote to me, I have officers out on all hands helping to raise men as also myself Does all I can to get up my company with speed
