Washington D.C. Jan. 20, 1873.

Dear Lawrence

Mr Kessel's departure from Bremen with the fish eggs has been somewhat-delayed, she did not leave until last-Saturday. This will make it about-two weeks from that date till the time of his arrival. I shall not, therefore, come to N.Y. this week, but-I may possibly start about-the middle of next week so as to have time to spend a day or two in Cambridge, & return to N.Y. in time to meet the steamer.

Very truly yours.

Spencer Baird

Geo. W. Lawrence Esq.

172 Pearl Street.

New York.
