Washington, D.C. April 1.

My Dear Lawrence.

The Sumichrast-Collection will probably go to you to-morrow or Monday; & I fear you will be disappointed in it, as the number of additional Species is not so great as I was led to suppose, from Sumichrast's letters.

I have written to Mr. Harrier, offering him one of the biggest-Metes-rites at $2, a pound. Why not get him to take the entire set?

Yours Sincerely

N. W. Baird
