My Dear Sir

The half yearly premium on my life Insurance in the Baltimore Life Ins. Co. will fall due on the 12th inst. I inclose herewith a check on Briggs & Co. with whom I now keep my account, for $190 - payable to J. F. Donaldson or order - and ask the favor of you to hand it to him & take his receipt. - When I come to Baltimore, I will bring the policy with me - and get the credit entered on it.

As to my own health, I am I hope gaining strength - but by no means fit for much work - I was much broken down in the last two weeks of the Supreme Court & not able to get into the street for a fortnight afterwards - But I hope I shall be well enough to be in Baltimore on next Monday evening & be ready for Court the next day -

Ever truly

Your friend

R. B. Taney

R. B. TANEY to D. M. Perine, Esq., Baltimore.....Washington, April 5, 1857.A.L.S.

My Dear Sir

The half yearly premium on my Life Insurance in the Baltimore Life Ins. Co. will fall due on the 12th inst.- I enclose herewith a check on Riggle & Co. with whom I now keep my account, for £ 190- payable to J. J. Donalson on order and ask the favor of you to hand it to him & take his receipt. -When I come to Baltimore, I will bring the policy with me - and get the credit entered on it.

As to my own health, I am I hope gaining strength- but by no means fit for much work. I was much broken down in the last two weeks of the Supreme Court & not able to get into the street for a fortnight afterwards -But I hope I shall be well enough to be in Baltimore on next Monday evening & be ready for court the next day -

Ever truly
