Philadelphia Aug. 19. 1801.

Sir,

Mr William Bingham having on his departure from this country confided in me the general direction of his affairs desired me actively to prosecute a claim he has made on the State for the payment of the certificate for £126.  $\frac{9}{100}$  which has already been the subject of some correspondence between you and his brother.

In order that the obstacles which exist to the satisfaction of this demand may be removed as early as possible I respectfully request you Sir to state to me precisely their nature and extent <sup>as well as</sup> the sort of evidence which will be required to destroy them.

I have the honour to be Sir
