CIRCULAR TO COLLECTORS OF THE CUSTOMS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

December 16th, 1833.

This Department has received from the Secretary of State information communicated to him by Sir Charles R. Vaughan, the British Minister, that in addition to the British ports of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Prince of Wales Island, beyond the Cape of Good Hope, heretofore open to American trade, the following ports at the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope are also declared to be open to vessels of the United States, and with which they are permitted to trade, to wit: Cape Town, Simon's Town and Port Elizabeth.
