very interesting

Friedrich July 13. 1816

Dear Sir

I have received your letter, and upon the statement made by you it is most clear that there is no foundation for either of the facts brought against you - I have brought the suit against Mordecai Gist for the assault according to your directions.

I shall consider myself as your counsel according to your request & will undertake no business against you - we will settle the retainer when I see you -

Very respectfully

Yr. Obedt. S.
