Dear Daughter

It is now the fifth day since you left - and I have as yet had <sup>no</sup> news of your safe arrival - as you had ~~sent~~ <sup>sent</sup> paper with you I supposed you might find ink -

I inclosed you <sup>a</sup> couple of letters on Saturday Yesterday a letter came to you from Newhville seeing it was Catron's handwriting I opened it & found a request for you to get him a room and boarding somewhere here - as he intended coming on after the holidays - I have done the best I could for him - Mrs Carter offers him the room formerly occupied by Judge Story and afterwards by Judge Wilkes, when his wife did not come -

He is the room now occupied by Sooms & wife -

I have written to him this morning informing him of it - & of your absence - when will you be home - official news that Savanna is taken - 25000 bales of cotton etc - Love to all - affectionately your father

Dear Daughter

It is now the fifth day since you left - and I have as yet had no news of your safe arrival - As you had pens and paper with you I supposed you might find ink -

I inclosed you a couple of letters on saturday[.] Yesterday a letter came to you from N[...]. Seeing it was Catron's handwriting I opened it & found a request for you to get him a room and boarding somewhere here as he intended coming on after the holidays - I have done the best I could for him - Mrs. Carter offers him the room formerly occupied by Judge Story and afterward by Judge McLean, when his wife did not come -

It is the room now occupied by Loomis & wife - I have written to him this morning informing him of it - & of your absence - when will you be home - Official news that Savanna is taken - 25,000 bales of cotton & etc - Love to all - affectionately
your father
