Jam Hamilton Esquire

Dear Sir

This is to return you the sincerest acknowledgments for your civilities while we staid at Carlisle and had it been in my power to tarry any longer, with the greatest pleasure, we should have accepted your polite invitation.

This week also be deliv'd by Mrs S' Happart, who intend to spend the winter, with Mr. Thompson, at Harringburgh: Should the weather be favourable and Mrs S' Happart, able to visit Carlisle, it would afford me much satisfaction of hearing of her waiting on your family.

I am respectfully Dear Sir

Your most Obedt<sup>h</sup> & very humble servant

J. Seger S' Happart
