SEVENTH

Southern Illinois Interscholastic

CARBONDALE, ILLINOIS.

May 7, 1915

Athletic Contest 1:00 P. M. Bayliss Field.
Intellectual Contest Normal Hall 8:00 P. M.

Awarding of medals and prizes will take place at the close of the intellectual contest in Normal Hall. The number used by the contestant in the meet will be a check for securing the medal in the event won. In case the winner cannot be present he should appoint some one in his place and furnish him with his number.

The shield given to the team winning the meet is awarded by the Carbondale Retail Merchants' Association. The shield for the team winning the second greatest number of points and the one to the individual point winner is presented by L. J. Weiler, jeweler. The shield awarded to the team winning the relay race is given by J. A. Patterson, clothier. The cup for second in the relay is presented by W. O. Hearn, druggist.

WM. McANDREW, Referee and Starter.
