ATTENTION

The faculty in its Feb. 1 meeting has established the following requirements for chapel-assembly attendance for the Spring Semester 1965. Due to the fact that this is the last semester of required attendance, it is important that every student is aware of these requirements:

1. All members of the present senior class shall complete their chapel-assembly requirements for graduation.
2. Underclassmen (juniors, sophomores, and freshmen) shall be required to attend twelve (12) chapel or assembly programs in the Spring Semester, 1965.
3. Underclassmen with deficiencies shall be required to attend twelve (12) chapels or assemblies in the Spring Semester, 1965, plus enough others to make up their deficiencies, up to a total of twenty (20) attendances. All underclassmen who have more than eight (8) deficiencies will meet chapel-assembly requirements by attending twenty (20) chapels or assemblies during the Spring Semester, 1965.
4. Any student who fails to meet the aforesaid requirements by June, 1965, shall lose one (1) course credit if a freshman or four (4) semester hours credit if a sophomore or junior.

ACTION OF THE SFJC

1. On January 13, two juniors were found guilty of plagiarism on term papers. Because there was reasonable doubt as to intent SFJC recommended that they receive an F on their term paper.
2. On Jan. 16, a junior was found guilty of plagiarism on a term paper. Because there was reasonable doubt as to intent SFJC recommended that she receive an F on the term paper.

Also on Jan. 16, two male students were found guilty of being in sorority rooms after the legal hour. For this reason they were placed on disciplinary probation for the remainder of the academic year 1964-65. Disciplinary probation is here defined as maintaining exemplary conduct. A female, non-sorority student was found guilty of entertaining men in a sorority room after legal hours. For this reason she was denied the privilege of entering any sorority's rooms for any purposes whatsoever until the end of the present calendar year 1965. Another female sorority member was found guilty of entertaining men in a sorority room after legal hours and permitting alcoholic beverages to be served in a sorority room. For these reasons she was denied the privilege of using any sorority's rooms for any purpose except to attend her own sorority's chapter meetings and denied all sorority social privileges until the end of the academic year 1964-65. Further she was placed on disciplinary probation until the end of the calendar year 1965. Disciplinary probation is here defined as maintaining exemplary conduct.

Also on Jan. 16, a freshman under 21 was found guilty of breaking the social rules relating to alcoholic beverages. For this reason he was suspended from Dickinson College for the first two weeks of the Spring Semester, placed on social probation until Spring Vacation and placed on disciplinary probation until the end of the academic year 1964-65. Disciplinary probation is here defined as maintaining exemplary conduct.

3. On Jan. 20, a junior was found guilty of plagiarism on a term paper. For this reason she was required to withdraw from the course with a penalty grade of F.

Also on Jan. 20, a sophomore was found guilty of plagiarism on a term paper. For this reason he was required to withdraw from the course with a penalty grade of F.

4. On Jan. 21, a freshman was found guilty of cheating on a final examination. For this reason he was required to withdraw from the course with a penalty grade of F.

6. On Feb. 1, a junior was found guilty of conduct unbecoming a Dickinson College student for her improper behavior during a final exam. For this reason she was placed on disciplinary probation for the remainder of the present semester. Disciplinary probation is here defined as maintaining exemplary conduct.

7. On Feb. 2, a junior and a senior were found guilty of cheating on a final exam. For this reason they were required to withdraw from the course with a penalty grade of F. They were also found guilty of willful failure to give truthful testimony to the SFJC. For this reason they were suspended from Dickinson College for four class days and placed on disciplinary probation for the remainder of the present semester. Disciplinary probation is here defined as maintaining exemplary conduct.

8. On Feb. 4, a freshman was found guilty of plagiarism on a term paper. Because there was reasonable doubt as to intent it was recommended that she receive an F for the term paper and it was further recommended that she be required to write a non-credit term paper on another subject to be evaluated by her instructor in 2A before she receive a grade in the course.
