GO DICKINSON

FOOTBALL

A speedy halfback, the double reverse, and a ticking clock thwarted D-son's attempt to end a jinx which has now seen the Red Devils drop 23 straight games to the Diplomats. The crucial play from the home viewpoint occurred at the close of the first half when time halted a D-son threat with second down on the enemy 2.

The capacity crowd of students and parents was treated to a rough, exciting brand of football. Coach Siobert's boys showed a strong line, a steady ground game, and two promising frosh quarterbacks in Toby Craig and Reno DiOrio.

On the basis of Saturday's performance, the Red Devils still have a very good chance to finish the season over .500. Chip Skladany was top ground-gainer for the home forces with 88 yards in 15 tries. Although still spotty, the D-son pass defense has improved vastly since pre-season scrimmages. The Red Devils are away with Wagner next week.

The Pershing Rifles, under the direction of Maurice Wallack, gave an excellent half-time show of precision drill.

Wagner regained the lead the next time it got the ball and scored twice more in the last quarter. Dickinson clicked on an 18-yard pass play, Brominski to Thomas for the final score.

Dickinson's spotty pass defense again proved its nemesis as the Hawks scored on two aerials for 21 and 57 yards. The loss killed any chance the Devils had for a plus .500 season. Their record is now 1-3. Dickinson's next game is away with Allegheny who ground out a 14-0 victory over Grove City College.

ERRATA

The daily sonator retracts the statement appearing in yesterday's issue which generalized that the football squad after the defeat on Saturday at Wagner, couldn't possibly have a better than .500 season. There are 4 games remaining on this year's schedule and should the Red Devils win all 4 they would finish with a 5-3 record which would give them a winning season. This should give every student incentive to support our team's efforts. This Saturday the Red Devils play an away game with Allegheny. Last year's score was 16-12 in favor of D-son.

Isn't nature wonderful?

FOOTBALL

Tomorrow the Red Devils (1-3) travel to Meadville, Pa. where they will clash with the "Golden Hawks" of Allegheny College (2-2).

Coach Seibert and his staff have worked hard this week to improve the team's pass defense and offensive running skills which were lacking in last week's game with Wagner. He also cautioned the team not to let its spirit drag which also seemed evident in last week's game.

The team is in good physical shape with the exception of injuries suffered by Durb Wagner and Chuck Zwally, who probably will see limited action.

"It will take desire, spirit, and guts to beat this team" says Coach Seibert, SUPPORT YOUR TEAM!

Lebanon's first score came on a blocked punt which rolled in the end zone. The other was set up by a pass interception.

Dickinson struck paydirt in the second quarter on a 53-yard pass play Harlow to Thomas. Earlier in the quarter Halfback Bob Worthington had electrified the crowd with a 59-yard return of a kick-off. The touchdown was nullified, however, when officials ruled he had stepped out of bounds on the 40.

TO THINK ABOUT

Mares eat oats, and Does eat oats and
Little lambs eat Ivy -
A kid will eat Ivy too, wouldn't you?
(Editors note - say the above through rapidly
a few times, then ask the same question that I did. Who are they trying to kid?)

Glory to God in the highest message

"Christ the King of the world, chose for his birthplace not a richly adorned, luxurious palace, but a simple humble stable in Bethlehem. His earthly home was that of a poor carpenter of Nazareth. All through his life, he associated most widely with the simple and humble. Isn't there a clear message here?

Hasn't the emphasis on values shifted to the other extreme in our twentieth Century? Isn't there too much emphasis laid on material rather than spiritual gain, on the tinsel and glitter rather than the hidden, true meaning?

If we can change from the materialistic to the spiritual viewpoint, our lives as well as the lives of others, will be blessed this Christmastide, not with fleeting and surface pleasure, but with true and abiding joys with lasting happiness."

From the writings of Father James Keller - M.M.

ATTENTION

This is the last day you can buy a record of the Choir-Chorale Christmas concert. See Mr. Jarrett or Dr. Ultan before you leave for vacation.
