The record stands at 1-1 having beaten Elizabethtown 24-8 and bowing to Temple 6-20. The lower weights are pretty well settled, but due to injuries the heavy weights are still open and actual starters will not be known until the last day. Heavyweight "Hank" Spire was put out of commission until February with a blood disease and Jack Clough will probably be making his first appearance to fill in that spot. Jim Enterline has still not fully recovered from his rib trouble and Dave Waight, crippled by a pre-season sprained ankle is going to try his best at 177 for his first appearance. The probable lineup will be as follows--

123: T. Hallam
130: J. Hallam
137: J. Gauntt
147: J. Icenhower
157: J. LeRoy
*167: B. Cero
*177: D. Waight

* Paul Crawshaw may break through in either weight division.

Dear Student Body,

The Daily Senator does not pledge its support to any particular party or candidate in the coming Student Senate election. The Daily Senator does recognize the parties and candidates already announced as running and, due to the feelings of various factions on our campus recognizes the possibility of "write-in" candidates at the polls tomorrow. Whether you approve of the recognized candidates or wish to write-in another person of your choice is your prerogative. We all wish to establish the most successful Student Senate possible for 1962-1963. This goal can only be achieved by every student going to the polls tomorrow and voting for the most qualified candidates to represent the students.

Challenge Accepted

Duane Johnson, the downtown book salesman has accepted the challenge of the student representatives now buying books from the students as to the highest prices available. He asks all students to check the list of prices posted on the window of his store and compare them. He is open most anytime and will bid as high as any competitor, he says.

(editor's note):

Since I have heard both sides of the story I am dubious as to the validity of both competitors. However, I urge all students to compare prices from both stores to insure yourself of the best deals, "money is so important". The Daily Senator does not however sponsor either of these two firms. Beware and be right!

Attention:

The management regrets that there are only a few openings left at the Park Manor Hotel in Ocean City New Jersey. We wish to urge you to please make your reservations as soon as possible so we can accomodate you this year. Thank you! (Bill Steadley & Kip Howell)
