WEEKEND ACTION (believe it or not)-Friday-

Maureen Ferrester, Canadian Contralto extraordinaire, 8:00 ATSA. A very cultural event; tails and emerald cigarette holders mandatory.

Woody Allen in Take the Money and Run, 8:00 Dana 110. Free, I think (hope). Less cultural and probably less funny, if you knew what I mean.

Two all-college fiestas---on the same night! One is at SAE for faculty and students ~~at~~ (in the same room!) and offers free beer, to be paid for by the incoming and outgoing officers and anyone else caught in the rush. Open bar at nominal cost. Begins at 9:30.

The other blasteree is somewhat less accessible but possibly more your style. To be held at Dickinson East, beginning whenever you arrive. Features rolling acres and an escape from the urban confusion.

James Wilson Lounge is open until 2:00, or thereabouts.

-Saturday-

Take the Money and Run, this time featuring Tony Dew as the money.

Lee Kattke and Jim Dawson, 8:00 in the dining hall. Buy your tickets now. (The offices of the Senator are proud to announce that ~~they were~~ were in possession of a Lee Kattke album before his having gained his present pre-concert obscurity. Tonight you'll marvel at our foresight. While we're at it, we also bet on George Foreman at only 2-1 odds. Yes, before the fight. Will you ever doubt us again?)

Faschings Party, sponsored by the German Club at 9:00 in K-W lounge. Everyone is invited and beer is free with wine being offered to the person with the most striking costume, which is optional, as is the veenerschnitzel and the wallet photo of the Kaiser presented you at the door.

-Sunday-

Pottery Workshop from 6:30 -8:30 on Sundays and Thursdays, Bosler Basement.

Pat Reynolds, its inventor in the early 60's, will held a Street Theater workshop at 1 P.M. in the Social Hall

Take The Money and Run will not be shown at 8:00 and will star Jerry Mathers as Woody Allen.

A TIP OF THE HAT

To Belles Lettres on their big, big 187th birthday. While all the movies have come and gone they are still exhibiting some photography collections in the HUB side-reen, which is where you can pick up the latest issue of their fine, upstanding publication.

TO YOU THROGS OF ORIENTAL ART FANATICS

Somebody will be selling original pieces of oriental art in the student center this coming Monday between 11 and 4 in the student center. (I think that means the union.) As a sort of sideline attraction these same mystery salemen will be selling stolen guns, portable tv's and pictures of your sister. Completely on the up and up.

COFFEE BEAN

On February 28 at 3:30 in the Besler Faculty Lounge, Juan Valdez and his wandering band of coffee beans will issue to all interested students a personal invitation to spend a few months with him in Colombia. Having joined heads with some top brass around here they have cleverly decided to call this adventure Colombia Semester. As added enticement, whoever brings back the most coffee beans and/or a llama will be granted an unconditional recommendation to any coffee processing plant in the Western Hemisphere. Juan is presently staying at the Molly Pitcher.

WEEKEND EXTRAVAGANZA WITH APPROPRIATE FESTOONERY

As a spontaneous paroxysm of passion, music, bubbles and other similar gala things is planned for tonight in the basement of Adams beginning at 9:00 and lasting until everyone decides it should be over, which will be around 1:00. This party features kegs of beer and Bradley, in that order. Good times will be had by all.

RETREAT!

An all-campus retreat is planned for next weekend, beginning Friday and lasting all the way until Saturday for only 2.50. It is sponsored by the College Church. Go with them to Wesley Forest and say hello to Wesley. Sign up in the Chaplain's office by Tuesday...er die.

DATELINE.....Carlisle.....

And life goes on. The college store throws its doors open wide, the typewriters of Student Services steadily clatter, the post office resumes distribution of various college catalogues and High Street is still here. The library had standing room only last night, while a mere four hours later the street sweeper amputated the PipeMan's pipe. And life goes on....except for an unnoticed few.

~~TRANSMISSIONXXXXXXXXXX~~ (This line doesn't promise to be too dandy)

BE WHERE ITS ALL HAPPENENG

See it first hand--the way our nation's grand capital churns--its intricacy and its beauty. If exaited see Professor Flowers about the Washington Semester Program by April 1 in Denny 106.

GIVE TO THE NEEDY

As Bud's tenure status is to come up soon he's decided to give the the ivy halls another whirl. Thus, the Rubendall Scholarship Fund will receive all funds taken in for the movie Interlude, to be shown tonight at 6:30 and 9:00 in the Social Hall. This admirable project is being sponsored by the Wheel and Chain and admission is only $.75. This should be a fine movæe.

RMNI FESTIVITIES AHEAD

The Congress of African Studies has planned four days of presentations. Thursday the film Sweet Sweetback's Baadass Song will be shown. Friday features an American Black Arts Festival and Saturday holds one Geoffrey Holder in store. Sunday is the topper with Putney Swope to be shown. Free tickets await your sweaty hand in Student Services.

IT BOGGLES THE MIND

A real live living breathing spitting scholar is to set foot on our own emaciated little village tonight at 8:00 in Memorial Hall. Leo Marx is from Amherst and has been shipped here for examination by the Phi Beta Kappa Visiting Scholar Program. He will speak on that one that's been keeping you up late nights, "American Pastoralism Reconsidered". So that he won't know that D'son is fresh out of scholars these days, cap and gown is mandatory dress.
