UPCOMING EVENTS

- * October 3rd: The first Student Senate sponsored "Cafe Night": Come talk and have dinner with the faculty and administration. 5:00-6:30 in the Dining Hall.

- * October 4th: Student Senate Open House with President Fritschler- all are welcome and encouraged to attend!!!

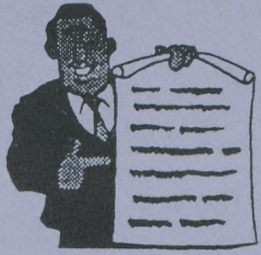

- * Coming soon: Action Agenda in the Dining Hall

The Student Senate held its annual retreat on Sunday 9/25.

Some of the ideas suggested:

- A column in the Dickinsonian
- Open mic in the cafeteria
- More interaction with other campuses
(Gettysburg, F&M, etc.)
- Encourage more school spirit
- Increasing publicity of Senate

Any questions or comments? Ask your senator or let us know at x1405, HUB 23, or email "tell senate"

Important Information

Oct. 24, 25, 27, 28: The Registrar will be at Coffee and Doughnuts to answer any questions about Pre-Registration.

Student Directories: Student Directories are now on sale in the Bookstore for $2 while supplies last.

At the Senate meeting on Tues. 10/18:

- Mark Belinsky of the Student Safety Patrol came to talk about their goals and accomplishments for this year.
- An ad-hoc committee was created to investigate options in the current meal plan.
- More issues were brought to AEGC for further investigation.

Some food for thought....

What do you think about Dickinson establishing an honor code?

Do you think we should have annual registration rather than twice a year?

Let us know what you think!

We can be reached at x1405, HUB 23, or email "tell senate"

At the meeting Tuesday night, 10/25:

- *Members of the Men's and Women's Rugby Teams discussed the status of their teams and explained their current situation with the Phys. Ed. Department.
- *Judiciary members were approved by Senate members.
- *Discussion continued about annual vs. twice a year registration.
- *Admissions and Financial Aid Comm. discussed whether SAT's should be optional for admission to Dickinson.

What is AEGC?

AEGC is the Auxiliary Enterprises and Grievances Committee which handles any problems, grievances, or ideas that have been brought forth to Senate. Some of their current projects and accomplishments:

- *Being able to charge in the Coffeebar
- *Increase dinner credit in SNAR from $3.50
- *Providing change and stamp machines in the HUB
- *Changing the 26 hour policy in the Kline Center for machines

Upcoming Events

- Creativity Workshop
- Friday, October 28, 5:30pm-11:30pm
- Saturday, October 29, 10:00am-4:00pm

For Your Information...

*Forms will be available in Student Activities for the Weekend Fun Line starting Monday, November 7th. Deadline is Wed. at 4:30!

*The Student Activities Office will now be open 12-1 on Monday and Friday afternoons.

*Cafe Night- Monday, November 7th, 5:00-6:30. Come and eat dinner with the faculty and administration and let them answer all your questions!

*Would you like to see the 26 hour sign-up policy in the Kline Center changed? If so, come next Thursday, Nov. 10th, 11-4 in HUB LL and sign a petition to help get this policy modified.

At the Senate meeting Tuesday night, 11/1:

-Les Poolman from the Phys. Ed. Dept. came to talk with the Senate about the recent decision to terminate the rugby teams. He explained the reasons why this was done and fielded questions from senators regarding this decision.

-The fall budget was brought forth from the Finance Committee and will be voted on next week.

-Student Affairs & Services Comm. (SASC) continues to review the implementation of the alcohol policy.

The next Faculty Meeting is this Monday at 7:30**

One issue that will be discussed is whether Dickinson should make the SAT's optional for admission. If you have an opinion on this issue and would like it to be voiced at the meeting, please let us know at HUB 23, x1405, or email "tell senate" before Monday night!
