WOMEN'S CENTER

~ NEWSLETTER ~
SEPTEMBER 6, 1985

WELCOME NEW STUDENTS: Hello! If you are new to Dickinson (and even if you aren't) we'd like to notify you of the existence of the Women's Center. This facility, located behind President Bank's house and next to South College, was established two years ago as a women's cultural center for the college community. In the past years, the center has sponsored speakers, lectures, workshops, films, plays, and concerts, as well as other activities, on campus. The Women's Center is open to any interested students, so watch for bulletins and notices of activities, as well as for newsletters, at the top of the stairwell in the HUB.

ATTENTION FEMINISTS: Are you interested in the situation of women at Dickinson? Are you looking for a feminist support group? The Women's Center is seeking out feminists hidden within the Dickinson community. If you are a frustrated (or any other kind) of feminist, think about joining, or rather, forming a support group of our own. We can have rap sessions, discussions, or other activities to help along the situation here at Dickinson. This is going to take a bit of organizing, in terms of meeting times, so WATCH CLOSELY FOR FORTHCOMING NOTICES!!! If you have suggestions or ideas concerning feminist activities, please drop a note in HUB BOX 1595. Thanks!

NEED INFORMATION ABOUT THE WOMEN'S CENTER? Address questions to HUB Box 1595, or contact Karen Ruocco at extension 1211. Any ideas or suggestions for activities would also be greatly appreciated!

WATCH FOR BULLETINS, NOTICES AND NEWSLETTERS FROM THE WOMEN'S CENTER AT THE TOP OF THE STAIRWELL IN THE HOLLAND UNION BUILDING!!!
