MAY WE INTRODUCE

COACH RICHARD "MAC" MacANDREWS

"A Noble Dickinsonian"

His fruitful years of service
Cannot be over praised.
His name will always bring us
Memories of his winning ways.

PRESIDENT FRED P. CORSON

"A Keen Sportsman"

Regal in his kingdom
He guides our honored school.
Exact in his wisdom,
Long may he rule.

PROFESSOR CHARLES L. SWIFT

"Dickinson's Ingenious Publicity Manager"

Suave in voice, strong in action
He caters not to one small faction
The esteem and honor he deserves
Is hallowed by the school he serves.

DOCTOR H. E. ROGERS

"Our Hard Working Graduate-Manager"

A man of rare ability
Who lays his plans methodically.
The good will of the school at heart,
No one could better play his part.

RULE CHANGES, 1936-37

A new circle of six-foot radius is to be drawn at the center of the court and is to be used as a restraining circle when the ball is tossed at center.

The outer edge of the free throw line (the edge nearer center) is to be 17 feet from the end line.

Captains are to be notified three minutes before each half is to begin.

Substitutes may communicate either before or after they have reported to an Official, but they must report immediately and must be ready to play promptly. A substitute may make a remark or call out instructions to his teammates at any time after he has reported to the Scorers and has been permitted to enter the court by an Official. If time is out for some other purpose he may join his teammates after reporting to an Official and may communicate with them.

When a foul and violation are called simultaneously, the foul is penalized and the violation disregarded.

Three seconds after the referee is ready to toss the ball the huddles must be broken up and the team ready to play.

• The above rule changes and clarification remarks are taken from "The Official Basketball Rules" of National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada.
