My dear Miss Cutts,

I received a note yesterday from Mr. Walker before I had an opportunity of seeing him, informing me that his friend Captain Jones of the Treasury Department, "a most excellent & highly respectable gentleman, more more so in this City," would bring Miss Lane to Rockaway. After this, I did not deem it proper to mention your brother's name, especially as I know that Captain Jones is to be employed in the transaction of important business in New York.

Mr. Charles Ebert & his sister will, also, go to Rockaway. The day appointed for departure is Friday the 30th Instant,

I saw Mr. Bache last evening who says they will be delighted to have you to join the party.

Sincerely & respectfully

Your friend

James Buchanan
