Washington 19 July 1848

My dear Sir /

Having determined to invite the whole

Pennsylvania Delegation to a supper on Saturday evening I would thank you to direct one of your pages to distribute the notes of invitation. It is good I think that ~~all~~ Pennsylvanians should <sup>occasionally</sup> meet in social intercourse without distinction of party: & I trust we shall have a pleasant meeting. There are no invitations except to the Delegation.

In regard to yourself I remember the "Auld Lang Syne" with peculiar pleasure: & I know you will comply with my request cheerfully.

From your friend
Very respectfully

James Buchanan
