Dear Sir /

Whilst in Philadelphia I was so incapacitated engaged that I did not find time to acknowledge the receipt of the "Friendly Sons of St. Patrick".
Your "little book" has a peculiar interest for me; as I am the son of a native of the Emerald Isle who emigrated to this country previous to the date of our definitive Treaty of Peace with Great Britain in the year 1783.

With many thanks for ~~your kind~~ this valued token of your regard, I remain yours very respectfully.
