Washington 21 July 1842.

Dear Sir,

I have received yours of the 18th.
Instant announcing that the Board of Trustees of Dickinson College had conferred upon me the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. In this unexpected, though not the less acceptable, token of their regard, please to present to them my most grateful thanks. My sense of their personal kindness is the greater; because I feel conscious that I do not deserve so distinguished a literary honor.

With sentiments of respect, I remain

Yours sincerely,

James Buchanan

John M'Clintock Esq
Secretary &c.
