

Dickinson College Archives & Special Collections

<http://archives.dickinson.edu/>

Documents Online

Title: Letter from James Buchanan to Charles Wentz

Date: April 22, 1859

Location: MC 1998.10, B4, F2

Contact:

Archives & Special Collections
Waidner-Spahr Library
Dickinson College
P.O. Box 1773
Carlisle, PA 17013

717-245-1399

archives@dickinson.edu

75 - 100
asked

Washington 22 April 1859.

My dear Sir,

I have received your favor of the 19th Instant respecting our friend Col. Stambaugh. I sincerely sympathize with him & would gladly relieve him if this were in my power. I have done more than any man living to assist him in his pecuniary affairs; but he is improvident as we all know. I have offered him two good offices; but he would accept neither of them. With every disposition to serve him, I know not now what to give him. Vacancies are occurring in the Territories; but I know not whether he would be willing to accept any of them.

The disbursements of public money by the Superintendent of Public Printing are very large &

it requires a careful & economical business man to prevent jobs & ~~impositions~~ counteract the schemes of those who would impose upon it.

The investigations into the concerns of that office before the appointment of General Bowman by a Committee of the late House of Representatives present many astounding facts.

I had not the least idea, before the receipt of your letter, that "the Jersey Harboring Disgrace" would have rendered the attempt to enlist
Col: Stambaugh in their ranks.

from your friend
very respectfully

James Buchanan

Charles E. Wentz Esq

Washington 22 April 1859.

My dear Sir/

I have received your favor of the 19th. Instant respecting our friend Col: Stambaugh. I sincerely sympathise with him & would gladly relieve him if this were in my power. I have done more than any man living to assist him in his pecuniary affairs; but he is improvident as we know. I have offered him two good offices; but he will accept neither of them. With every disposition to serve him, I know not now what to give him. Vacancies are occurring in the Territories; but I know not whether he would be willing to accept any of them.

The disbursements of public money by the Superintendent of Public Printing are very large &

[Page Break]

it requires a careful & economical business man to prevent jobs & ~~impositions~~ counteract the schemes of those who would impose upon it. The investigations into the concerns of that office before the appointment of General Bowman by a Committee of the late House of Representatives presents many astounding facts.

I had not the least idea, before the receipt of your letter, that “the Forney Harrisburg Disorganizers” would have prevented the attempt to enlist Col: Stambaugh into their ranks.

from your friend
very respectfully
James Buchanan

Charles E. Wentz Esq