Dear Sir,

If your opinion agrees with mine on Mr Goodings's Affair, please to seal my Letter to him & forward it —

I should be extremely unwilling to engage him in a chancery Suit, if you differ in the least from Me —

I wish you every Blessing — which indeed is wishing great Happiness to your affectionate Friend & very humble servant

Letter,

The Deaver, Mrs Mary Almond, formerly Peterson, is the only surviving witness to a Deed from Jonas Peterson to Joseph Mottson, for Land in which I am now interested. She goes in my Carriage to New Castle, to prove that Deed; and I shall esteem it a singular Favor, if You will be so good as to have her Examination taken as soon as the Court sits, & send her immediately back, so that the Carriage may take her Home; & then return to Wilmington this Evening.

The Deed above mentioned is on the opposite side of the Paper containing a Deed from Regina Mostonion to Joshua Mostonion & proved Carl November Term by W. Mafler - now in the Hands of W. Bedford the postnotary Deceased to get W. Almond a sight of the Deed before she goes into Court to refresh her Memory, as the Deed is old.
