Ed. Spruce Esq

My Dear Sir

Mr Doughty hands me One hundred + five dollars the amt. I paid for your charter - viz.

Duty of the Com.	$ 100.
Office Fees -	5
Extra to clerk	3
	$ 108

The clerks do not work on Saturday afternoon and as Mr Cameron was in haste, I concluded to hurry it up by getting the clerks a few to work on Saturday afternoon -

We have got started with sufficient encouragement to justify the hope we will succeed & enough of opposition and envy to keep us civil & accommodating

I wish I could do you some kindness, I owe you much & I would be glad to have an opportunity to show you I am not ungrateful

Truly yrs friend

Dear Mr. J. J. Gorham has appointed Mr. Hale of Bellfords himself & myself under the late law to examine the condition of the Bank of the

It is an appointment of some responsibility & we are expected to commence the examination on next Tuesday morning.

Will you come this way? with me at noon & let me know if not when will you stop? Hale stops at Dana & I think it desirable we should all stop at the same hotel - I am willing to go there it is near the Bank & a good house

Yours very

J. J. Gorham

If you come this way come on Monday morning & we will have supper at noon & in the evening

Harrisburg Nov. 12, 1857

Dear Slifer

The Governor has appointed Mr Hale of Bellfonte yourself & myself under the late law to examine the condition of the Bank of Pa-

It is an appointment of some responsibility & we are expected to commence the examination on next Tuesday morning-

Will you come this way? write me at once & let me know if not when will you stop? Hale stops at Jones & I think it desirable we should all stop at the same hotel-I am willing to go then it is near the Bank & [illegible] house

Truly yrs
J.C. Bomberger

If you come this way come on Monday morning & we will ban together at noon is in the [illegible]

Dear Alfred,

I send you the proceedings of our convention you will see we snubbed Cameron pretensions for the Presidency -

Casy with the original resolutions & when we first saw them there was not a word said about Kinkaid - we with the substitute we -
- sub & had counted votes so that if they had dared to call the yeas & nays we would have beaten them - Cameron was in town & Donald was inside the convention (although they set with closed doors)

The meeting is the more agreeable to us because we were satisfied that nothing about the Presidency should be said, but they were so arrogant & confident that they supposed they could do us this phrase - John is happy & so am I -

Cameron yesterday had a flare up with Deakins whom he charged that the Missile was opposed to Garrison because we wanted you elected St. Treasurer - if he goes on in that way Garrison will have a rough road to travel it looks as if Garrison was phlegged against you we will mention that fact & if you please you will see that how

[1858?]

Dear Slifer

I send the proceedings of our convention you will see in snubbed Camerons partisans for the [Presdency]-

Casy sent the regiment resolution & where in first saw them there was not a word said about Kunkle in sent the substitute [illegible] & have counted votes so that if they had dared to call the yeas & nays we would have beaten them-Cameron was in time & Donald was inside the convention (although they sat with closed doors)

The notary is the more agreeable to us because in even satisfied that nothing: about the Sunday should be said, but they were so arrogant & confident that they supposed they could do as they pleased-John is happy & so am I-

Cameron yesterday had a flare up with Dick Fox wherein he charged that the [illegible] Bill was opposed to Lanman because we wanted you elected Lt Treasurer - if he goes on in that way Shriner will have a rough road to travel it looks as if Shriner was pledged against you we will ascertain that fact & if so your monies not your friends must elect him

Dear Sir,
Ed. Patterson was here but the Legislature appeared determined to do any thing until after the inauguration & he returned home - He has sent in our reports on a resolution passed by the house - I did not see Hoke when he was here.

You have doubtless seen in the papers that Allston has returned - What will we do now?

There is a great deal in town, full of soldiers & etc.

I will be glad when it is over as I have a great business to conduct

Yours

Dear Sir

I am annoyed about the Pai Bank business - I expected Mr. Patterson here this week but he did not come, he expected after the negotiation to have his bill put through by telegraph -

I think there is some at Bullfinch next week & I suppose Hale can not be heard -

If you & he can agree upon my terms I will go down & clear it up, I still think however that next week Patterson will be here & I can consult with him -

I suppose you have seen Mr. Allmon's card since he returned, it is just in keeping with his former letters written from England)

Dear Slifer

I am annoyed about the Pa Bank business-I expected Col Patterson have this work but he did not come, he expected after the inauguration to him his loan part through by telegraph-

I think there is court at Bellfonte next week & I suppose Hale can not lennd-

If you & he can agree upon any time I will go down & close it up, I still thank [Lanman] that next week Patterson will be here & I can consult with him-

I suppose you have seen Mr Alltons card since he returned, it is just in keeping with his foolish letters written from England

Hannover July 3. 1858

Dear Sister
I have a letter from Col Patterson dated 29th ult. in which he says "he expects to be in Hannover on Wednesday" - I wanted before writing to you to see him but he has not come, he wants us to go down on next Monday again - I suppose you have seen the proceedings of the Stockholders & I think they will make an adjournment on next Wednesday - If we intend going down again we should go on Monday -

I understood you were expected home some day the week or perhaps I would have written to you sooner I will write Judge Hale to day & if I do not hear from him I will take it for granted we will meet there on Monday, unless it should not suit your convenience -

Washington May 16. 1858

Dear Sister

I received your letter written in New York, on last Sunday morning, the reason you assigned for writing it made it no less welcome but rather enhanced the pleasure it gave me - I have felt the loneliness you speak of come over me in crowded cities, in my own retirement and amidst the profusion of books & attribute it to the same holy influence that seeks to show me how unsatisfying the world is in any or all of its aspects; at such times my feelings are tender my spirit humble & my affections warm & usually my thoughts turned to those I love most, as I regard your letter written at such a time I prize it the more highly; at any & all times however I will be glad to hear from you -

The death of your good Aunt brings to my mind again more vividly than of my dear good Mother, a life I shall never forget & which ~~is~~ ~~is~~ in my moments of reflection continues to vivify me - I do not wish to obtrude my sorrows & griefs on you too much but I know you will pardon the allusion when I tell you it is a relief to me to speak to one whom I know sympathizes with me - I enclose with this a piece of poetry written by my Sister, she lays no claims to poetry writing & I do not consider it a production of much work in putting but there is feeling & sentiment in parts of it - The verse beginning "Softly one thought the Saviour said" &c is tender & Christian - "But now I live" &c is the true Christian feeling "God when seen in this or hundred"

I also enclose an editorial on another subject -

As to my visit I fear it must be postponed until later in the season, in spite of going to Niagara last summer perhaps we can arrange to go during the present summer - Can't you come down here for a day or two - I think I mentioned to you that Jacob Heldmann had refused to speak to and after the death of his brother for the Society - A few days ago on his ^{own} account he stopped up to me & very cordially invited me to come & see him reminding me of a promise I had made "long ago" & added when Mr. Miller comes to Hamburg bring him over I shall be very glad to see you both - his wife offered without success & now seems to relent - Mr. Knobel was home from Washington for several weeks - but returned on last Monday leaving his wife here he was expected back this morning but I do not know whether he has got here

The wet weather here interferes with our farming operations very much & prevents me from making some improvements I expected to make -

With sincere constant wishes for every good for you & yours

I am ever yours

Dear Mr. [unclear] [unclear] was in town yesterday & he appears to be anxious to be nominated for the Senate & thinks he can be elected - He is very desirous you should be a confederate from your county or if you refuse to go, at least to have the delegates instructed & such as will be friendly to you - that you can influence - I hope you will do this if you can for I am sure he will be of service to us if elected -

If you get the Weekly Telegraph you will find the proceedings of our convention reported differently from the daily which I sent you - you can imagine how a garbled report could be got into the Telegraph - we watched the daily but did not think it possible they would change the proceedings after they had been published there

I write in great haste & can now only acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 2^d - It is just what I expected from you

"If your paper publishes the resolutions it should publish the town account

Dear Sister
On my return home from Philadelphia I got John to write to Mr Thompson in regard to the Pittsburg M. W. Chicago bonds - I enclose his answer - I then wrote to Reuben at Pittsburg & also enclose his letter in reply - Please return both these letters to me - If we get the thing accomplished we are to be partners You, John & myself -

John left for Washington at 3 o'clock yesterday (Monday) morning but will be home on Friday or Saturday -

Mr Doughty I found in bed with a severe attack of gout when I got home & he is still laid up with it - I fear he will not be out for some time & I cannot go to Sheppensbury until he gets better -

Mr Casey told me with a significant look that if Garrison could be satisfied that several of the Pittsburg delegation could be got for you for Soc. - The Spectator I think it would satisfy him -

I heard the lay preacher John Corkman on Sunday evening - in the Methodist Church, he reminded his brother Alfred very much in appearance & manner - The church was crowded, he took "Choose ye whom ye will serve &c", he began in an easy natural way to give detached parts of the history of the children of Israel and God's dealings with them, spoke of the false gods, wealth, fame & worldly pleasures - then the true worship of God - & this food although there was nothing particularly new or striking did very well - but when he commenced to enforce an immediate choice - he laboured and floundered, there seemed to be something he wanted to say he could not get at, he related two or three death-bed scenes & tried to be very pathetic but all would not do, he seemed (& I think the poor fellow felt it) choked, choked - he evidently was not satisfied with himself - after singing he tried again - Wavered on some sad yet here is our Jesus anchor with but all would not do - he sought, as well known called "Spouts forth the deep" - He was not "in the spirit on the Lords day" - Well, I do not find fault, there was much to commend - I left before the prayer meeting was over but even I felt there was something wanting, there was no manifestation to his people such as the world knows not of - there was no shaking among the dry bones. Thine truly

Dear Sir
John is at home & says he has spoken to the members of Congress to ask you & he says Corcoran has gone vigorously to work - I believe he promised Corcoran you & & I and the rest of mankind generally would be for him for Governor -

I am getting into a nice kettle of fish about this Governor-making - I hope to be for you & I find I am already pledged to some 3 or 4 others, Cassy, Weston Corcoran & so on - I did some of the pleading myself however - when I make one in politics I consider it ^{as} good as a business & I rather pride myself on the faithful performance of all business pledges -

I inclose a letter from Rep to let you know he has not forgotten his promise, he is a good fellow -

Mr. Adams expects to be in town tomorrow

Dear Alfred
I told Samuel I had rec^d. a letter from you, but did not show it to him until after he had sent your letter - I did not intend to show it at all, but you know how he is - when he wants to know any thing you or I know he usually gets it out of us - I felt the more liberty in doing so as you gave me the privilege in your letter

My first recollection of an "impassable gulph" or "great gulph" (Luke 16 + 26) is unpleasant & made me smile I do not like the expression - My own deliberate opinion & judgment is, that Nathan should be appointed but if he is not, or if I asked you for myself & you refused me, I would not want any "great gulph" placed between us, even in this world -

Allen me own man to say the opposite to Nathan is factious & unreasonable even then

Dear Alfred

I went to the capital this P.M. to see you & while there had one of the clerks to refer to the appointments of Notaries Public; to my great disappointment & surprise I found that two had been appointed in Lebanon Co & that Waffer was not one of them.

When I remember that exactly the recommendations you wished were procured & that other reasons of which I had apprised you made it extremely desirable to me that Waffer should be appointed I was grieved, because I know how happy it would have made me to serve either you or the Governor under like circumstances.

It is true any position does not give one the power or ability to render any great services to either of you, but I submit to you whether I have not so far as they extend always with pleasure & alacrity rendered them.

I do not consider I have been treated right & if I may add as I deserved
