Col. To Sirs Secy of State &c.

Dear Sir
The Hon.

Y^r. Genlship. Known to You doubtless favorably as a Man of Consistent piety, and a Minister in good Standing in the W. E. Church favorably Known in the Baltimore Conference, and a Man I think ^{who} would be useful in the position of Chaplain to a Regt. a position ^{he} desires from a sense of duty. he owes to God and his Country. I have thought that ~~they~~ very many of the Chap-lains have been profally deficient in the Religious influence they Exert. but in the Case of Bro Gen-
-hart I have the fullest Confidence in his piety & integrity
Yours

Col E. Slifer Secy of State &c.

Dear Sir

The Hon F. Gearhart known to you doubtles favorably as a man of Consistent piety and a Minister in good standing in the M. E. Church favorably known in the Baltimore Conference and a Man I think who would be usefull in the position of Chaplain to a Regmt. a position he deserves from a Sense of duty he owes to God and his Country. I have thought that ~~that~~ very many of the Chaplains have been Wofully deficient in the Religious influences they Exert, but in the Case of Rev Gearhart, I have the fullest Confidence in his piety & integrity.

Yours &
M Chamberlin
