Dear Mr.

You will find an Editorial article in this week's Repository written by me, on Pennsylvania & the War, which should be copied into the Telegraph. You can have some one suggest it to Bergher or Joney. It is a brief review of the success of your administration in organizing & caring for our soldiers.

I will go to Phila
Wednesday. I hope Magan will be there.

Yours

A. M. Blue

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb 8th, 1864.

Dear General.

Leut Vezitt, the bearer of Battery D, 2nd Pa Artillery, is from this county, and an intelligent, efficient & reliable officer. Over two hundred men have been recruited from this county by him and others for the regiment: there is but one commissioned officer from the county, while several vacancies exist, & have existed for some time owing to your differences with the Colonel, as I am informed.

I wish to say that Leut Vezitt is in all respects a soldier & credible, and he would be glad to make some statements relative to the ap-tion, inasmuch as the Colonel does not see as a medium in the future.

You cannot see in my credit to his representatives. It is certainly due our country to have some compensation

Very truly Yours
