Selous Grove July 26. 1862

Dear Sir

Take no action in appointing any one to recruit in our County till you hear from ^{us after} our meeting to be held on Monday at Middleburg at which the Co Comd agree to offer a bounty of 50 dollars for men

The harvest kept us back here but all will now right now in great haste

Yours

W. W. Weymiller

I had almost forgotten to thank you for your letters - our men wish to cheer their own officers - or rather our fathers that

Dear Sir

Take no action in appointing any one to recruit in our County till you hear from me after our meeting to be held on Monday at Middleburg at which the Co Coms agree to offer a bounty of 50 dollars per man

The harvest kept us back here but all will [miss?] right now -

in great haste

Truly
