BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dr. Eric Selvey was born and raised in Harrisburg, PA. He attended optometry school in Philadelphia and returned to the Harrisburg area after graduating.

Selvey was a member of Lily White and Company drag troupe, which raised thousands of dollars for local AIDS related organizations including South Central AIDS Assistance Network (SCAAN), of which he was also an active member. He worked on the Harrisburg Human Relations Commission, which fostered community relationships between the diverse Harrisburg populations; helped to develop Harrisburg's Pride Festival; and was a part organizing the first Fall Achievement Benefit (FAB) fundraising event in Harrisburg. He was also the creator, editor, and publisher of the local LGBTQ+ publication Crossroads Magazine.

Dr. Selvey lives in Harrisburg today.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

This collection includes materials from Selvey's involvement in Lily White & Company and Crossroads Magazine, an equality pin, and matchbooks from The Neptune Lounge. An Appendix of Crossroads Magazine issues is also included, and issues are housed in the Dickinson College Archives and Special Collections Periodicals section.
