

LGBT-028 Richard Twaddle Collection

LGBT Center of Central PA History Project
Archives and Special Collections
Dickinson College, Carlisle, PA
archives@dickinson.edu 717-245-1399

COLLECTION REGISTER

Name: Richard Twaddle LGBT-028

Material: Artifacts

Volume: 3 Artifacts

Donation: Donated by Richard Twaddle, 2014

Usage: These materials have been donated without restrictions on usage.

Organizer/Cataloger: Sarah Wakefield, March 2021

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Richard Twaddle was born in Greensburg, Pennsylvania in 1947. He worked in television and audio repair, and in 1972 moved to Carlisle when he started a job at a phone company. Twaddle is currently retired and lives in Carlisle today.

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

Twaddle was a member of The Pennsmen, a group of LGBT people with a common interest in the leather/fetish lifestyle, for approximately 12 years. This collection consists of artifacts from his time in The Pennsmen. The artifacts include a Bolo Tie, Belt Buckle, and Pin.

COLLECTION INVENTORY

Series 1 Artifacts

LGBT-028-AC01	Pennsmen Bolo Tie
LGBT-028-AC02	Pennsmen Belt Buckle
LGBT-028-AC03	Pennsmen Pin