BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mark Stoner was born in 1959, grew up, and currently lives in Lancaster, PA, where he has worked as a graphic designer for the past 30 years. He came out as gay early in his college years at Penn State University and became involved in Lancaster's gay community. He was among the founders of the Pink Triangle Coalition, was involved with establishing the Central Pennsylvania Pride and Lancaster Pride celebrations. He also helped found the Lancaster-area gay publication Inqueery, and served on the Lancaster City Human Relations Commission's protections against anti-LGBT discrimination

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

This collection is comprised of buttons from Mark Stoner's social and political activism.
