BOOKSTORE OPENS IN HARRISBURG

Every Sunday night between 9-10pm, MCC of the Spirit operates a Lesbian & Gay Bookstore. Located in the basement of the Friends Meeting House, the store is open immediately following the regular 7:30pm Sunday Service.

The need for a bookstore was recognized several years ago when people found they could not easily acquire literature dealing with Gay & Lesbian issues. In order to purchase these books, you had to either take a trip to Lewisburg, Philly or Baltimore; or write to mail order houses.

As an outreach of MCC of the Spirit, the Bookstore provides information and literature affirming Lesbian and Gay lifestyles. Its focus is on both the secular and the spiritual, and it offers works of fiction, non-fiction, self-help and health issues. A wide variety of periodicals are available, free, as are pamphlets describing MCC and other Lesbian and Gay Organizations and Services.

THE CLOSET CLOSES ITS DOOR

Due to continued Homophobic threats and attacks, The Closet Bookstore in Lancaster is now permanently closed. For many, bookstores like The Closet are an integral part of the coming-out process, giving us the chance to find out about ourselves and be O.K. with it. There's a feeling of safety knowing a whole bookstore affirms who we are, in a society more concerned with who we're not.

Even though there are other sources, it is unfortunate to see closed-mindedness shut another window to our world. If they bomb all the bookstores and lock-up all the bars, it won't change a thing. We still exist. We will survive.

Women's books are still available at The Dwelling Place in Lewisburg, Giovanni's Room in Philadelphia and the new MCC Bookstore in Harrisburg.
