LAVENDER LETTER

P.O. BOX 60184, HARRISBURG, PA 17106-0184

The Lavender Letter will be taking a break from business as usual during the month of August. We will continue to publish on our timely & regular schedule, and subscriptions & ads will be continued as usual, but we will not be in the office.

I am also requesting that all information be submitted by the 20th of August in writing, via fax or by e-mail, since I will be unable to return calls.

Thank you for your support and hopefully we'll be back to normal in September.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15TH

8pm... ROMANOVSKY & PHILLIPS at Bucknell University in Larison Hall. These two talented men have been described as the "gay Smothers Brothers." They are a musical comedy duo with six albums to their credit and have performed in more than 200 cities in the United States, Canada, and Australia since 1983. Their songs celebrate life with a perfect balance of wit, sensitivity, and political passion. The New Mexican called them "one of the funniest musical acts in the country, whose music, humor, and message cross all barriers. Romanovsky & Phillips are pioneers in the gay comedy movement. Their show "Let's Flaunt It" incorporates witty on stage banter and folk-style music that deals with the personal and political realities of being gay. Musically, Romanovsky & Phillips are polished performers and manage to combine compelling social commentary with catchy melodies endearing them to all their fans, gay and straight. For more information contact Cindy Peltier at the Bucknell Art Gallery, 717-524-3792.
