COMMON MYTHS ABOUT IRAs
(Provided by Prudential Securities)

Saving for retirement is so important that the government provides ways to help you in the form of tax-advantaged savings vehicles—one of the easiest of these accounts to open and build is the Individual Retirement Account (IRA). IRAs allow you to save up to $2,000 each year in a tax-deferred—and perhaps a tax-deductible, or in the case of the Roth IRA, a potentially tax-free—account.

Many people avoid IRAs because they don't understand their benefits. Here are some common myths...and the truth about IRAs.

I don't need an IRA, I'll have Social Security. Social Security pays only 40% of the average retiree's income.

I'm covered by my company's retirement plan so I can't open an IRA. You may have both.

If I can't deduct IRA contributions, there's no benefit. Even without tax deductibility, IRAs are one of the most efficient ways to save for retirement since income tax on all earnings in your IRA are deferred until you withdraw them, and in the case of the Roth IRA—may even be tax-free then.

Support Groups...

Now, York Chapter, (National Organization for Women) meets on the 3rd Wed. of odd-numbered months at the YWCA, E. Market St., at 7:30pm. and on the 3rd Saturday of even-numbered months at various locations at 10am. Call Cindy at (717) 848-9142 or Janice at (717) 259-6092 for info/directions & location of the Saturday meeting.

... PFLAG York meets at 750 Kelly Dr. (the former Lutheran Home building) at 7pm on the first Tues. of the month. Call Don and Pat (717) 843-3793 or Charles and Judy at (717) 846-7633 for directions or to be placed on the mailing list.

Why bother? IRAs don't earn much interest. Since your choices are not limited, you may be as aggressive or as conservative as you wish, even rolling over company plans if you leave your employer.

When it comes to saving for retirement, the hardest part is often getting started. However, IRAs are one of the easiest and most cost-effective ways to get your retirement savings strategy out of the land of fairy tales and into reality. If you have questions, a good financial advisor can assist you in determining your best options. And, remember, you have until April 15 to make contributions for the 1998 tax year.
