Health Spotlight....

SKIN CANCER

Planning to tan this summer? Don't forget your sunscreen lotion!
Are you aware of the fact that skin cancer is frequently caused by sun damage? You are at risk if you had occasional intense sunlight exposure during your childhood that caused severe sunburn and blistering. You are at risk if you have had extensive sunlight exposure over many years.

Do you use tanning beds or sunlamps? Exposure to UV rays from these sources are actually more harmful than the sun because they are more intense.

How do I know if I have skin cancer? Skin cancer may appear as a growth or a mole, a change in a growth or mole, such as an irregular shape, a sore that doesn't want to heal, or an irritation of the skin.

Check your body regularly for these signs, and if you think one looks suspicious, make an appointment with your doctor, and have him/her check it out for you.

Skin cancer is the most common form of cancer in the U.S. It can destroy skin cells and tissues, and in some cases can spread to other parts of the body.

Early detection and treatment of skin cancer can help prevent complications. Treatment depends on the depth, level, type, stage, and location of the growth at the time it is diagnosed. Surgery to remove the growth will help determine what treatment will be necessary. A biopsy will be performed on the growth to determine if it is cancerous or not.

Don't forget to use sunscreen when out in the sun this summer!

2002 Film Festival Schedule

Starts Fri. July 19th ends Thur. July 25th

The Night Larry Kramer Kissed Me

by David Drake, author of the play made into a film in Baltimore.

Sat - 7:30 p.m. One Night ONLY. See inside for more information. (81mins)

The Iron Ladies- Every now and then a comedy comes along with a heart so big and a cast of characters so wonderfully bizarre that you cannot help but fall in love with it - while crying with laughter all the while. The Iron Ladies is absolutely one of those films. A true story, it describes a volleyball team's inexorable march of transsexuals, transvestites and some rather effeminate gay guys to the Thai male national championships in 1996. At the team's heart are Mon, a weary transvestite, unlucky in love, and a fantastic player, and his best friend Jun, a raucous drag queen with hilariously over-supportive parents. They get their chance to show their stuff. (1hr, 44mins)

Fri - 9:35 p.m., Sat - 3 p.m., Sun - 4:45 p.m.,
Mon - 7:30 p.m., Tue - 9:30 p.m., Wed - 3 p.m., Thu - 5 p.m.

The Monkey's Mask- In a rare on-screen appearance, Kelly McGillis (The Accused, Witness and Tom Cruise's lover in Top Gun) stars in her most provocative and daring role to date as a bisexual married woman drawn into a torrid lesbian love affair with a private investigator searching for the murderer of a young woman. Susie Porter, last seen in Better Than Sex, plays the private eye who willingly, at first, dives into a world of murder and manipulation, only to be consumed by the ever-enthralling power of sex. Suspenseful, hard-edged and entirely lustful, The Monkey's Mask is a smoldering story of two star-crossed lovers whose lives will never be the same. (1hr, 20mins)

Circuit - With chiseled chests, throbbing music, and designer drugs, this film takes a non-stop tour of the circuit party scene, from the first beating dance mix to the morning-after withdrawal. John, a naïve, small-town cop arrives in West Hollywood, and he's quickly caught up in the circuit world, leaving his job to manhandle customers as the bouncer at a gay club. The filmmaker's steamy homage to the glamour and glistening flesh of the circuit scene comes with a warning label attached: men who party this hard also party at their own risk. (2hrs)

Burnt Money - Burnt Money premiered at the 2000 Toronto International Film Festival and is set in 1965 Argentina by director Marcelo Piñeyro. This true story follows the tumultuous, steamy relationship between two men who became lovers and ultimately ruthless bank robbers. Nene (Leonardo Sbaraglia), Angel (Eduardo Noriega) and Cuervo (Pablo Echarri) are bank robbers who flee Argentina to Uruguay after a large-scale hold-up turns bloody. Angel is hurt and the three must lay low until Angel recovers. Nene and Angel are known to everyone they know as "the twins" because of their resemblance, but the two are not brothers at all - they are involved in a steamy homosexual relationship. Eventually, with police in pursuit, the fate of Nene and Angel appears to be sealed. (2 hrs.)

ABOUT THE FILM

When the seed of West Side Story's "Somewhere" is planted into the soul of a gay child, the quest of THE NIGHT LARRY KRAMER KISSED ME begins. In nine inter-connected scenes, acclaimed filmmaker Tim Kirkman (Dear Jesse) interprets this landmark theatrical event written by and starring David Drake, while charting a molten course through the depths and shallows of the urban gay male experience. From the late-night club crawl to the buff-bunny gyms, from the threat of anti-gay violence to the place where condemnation, compromises and closets are a thing of the past-The Night Larry Kramer Kissed Me exposes the sexual, spiritual and political yearnings at the heart of gay America.
