The NCLR is the ONLY civil rights organization with a primary focus on lesbians. NCLR was founded 26 years ago by three attorneys who were tired of taking a back seat when it came to winning equal justice for lesbians. Please read the FAQ's about getting married in Canada because they list a couple of Canadian websites for more marriage info.

If you know anything about this group please contact the Lavender Letter at (717) 232-8382, or email info@lavenderletter.com. I have had several inquiries lately from some older lesbians looking to make contact with other older lesbians (60 and over).

...In 2004 I will be making gradual changes to the Lavender Letter and to the website: www.lavenderletter.com. Changes for the good I assure you. It's about time to update the look of the Lavender Letter, and time to add some new features as well. My webmistress and I will be adding some new features to the website too. Stay tuned.....

...Christmas gifts needed - Loaves of Love, the HIV/AIDS food bank in Harrisburg, reports that the women who come to them for food have about 10 children. I am asking for people to please donate gifts for the kids, such as coloring books and crayons, childrens books, educational toys, games, stuffed animals, etc. Let's make this a really special Christmas for these children.
