FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH

2005 Theme: The Niagara Movement: Black Protest Reborn, 1905-2005.

At the dawn of the 20th century, black Americans were facing increasingly precarious circumstances. Throughout the South, state legislatures were effectively stripping black men of their civil and voting rights. A legal system of Jim Crow racial segregation had taken root. And, blacks were increasingly confronting the ropes and pyres of white lynch mobs.

A LESBIAN PARADISE

Valentine's Day History

There are varying opinions as to the origin of Valentine's Day. Some experts say that it originated from St. Valentine, a Roman who was martyred for refusing to give up Christianity. He died on February 14, 269 A.D., the same day that had been devoted to love lotteries.

Legend also has it that St. Valentine left a farewell note for the jailer's daughter, who had become his friend, and signed it "From Your Valentine". Other aspects of the story say that Saint Valentine served as a priest at the temple during the reign of Emperor Claudius II, also known as Claudius the Cruel. Claudius jailed Valentine for defying him. In 496 A.D., Pope Gelasius set aside February 14 to honor St. Valentine.

Gradually, February 14 became the date for exchanging love messages and St. Valentine became the patron saint of lovers. The date was marked by sending poems and simple gifts such as flowers. There was often a social gathering or a ball to celebrate St. Valentine's Day.

Here in the United States, Miss Esther Howland is given credit for sending the first valentine cards. Commercial valentines were introduced in the 1800's, and now the date is very commercialized. The town of Loveland, Colorado, does a very large post office business around February 14. The spirit of good will continues as valentines are sent out with sentimental verses and children exchange valentine cards at school.

Valentine's Day is Monday, February 14, 2005. Do something special for your sweetheart. How about flowers and a candle light dinner?

And for those of you who do not have a sweetheart at this time, don't give up on love. Keep your heart open and love will find you.
