Mz. Kleen sez....

Do you have some bumper stickers on your car from the last election that you would like to remove? You probably tried to remove them but found you couldn't.....what do you do?

Try this:

1. Spray the sticker with a lubricant such as WD-40, and try to peel it off. If this doesn't work, proceed to step 2.
2. Soften the adhesive with heat from a blow dryer.
3. Start to peel off a corner of the sticker while continuing to apply heat, or gently scrape off the sticker with a rubber spatula or a putty knife with its metal blade wrapped in duct tape. Do not use a razor blade; it can scratch paint and bumpers.
4. Wipe the remains of the sticker away with a soft, lint-free rag dampened with rubbing alcohol.
5. Buff the bumper or panel with a polishing compound and a fresh coat of wax to complete the job.

Editor's Notes....

Just some brief notes here about the Lavender Letter:

*Every other month, the page that has Support, Social, and Activism Groups will be replaced by other things that are too important to be left out of the Letter. I tried to do another page, but that is too expensive to do every month. The solution is this new format.

*I am opening up the Issues Page on the Lavender Letter website to any writer who feels the need to "shake up" or issue a "wake up" call to our community. Take a look at the current Issues Page to get a feel for how long the article should be. You do not have to reveal your whole name, but I would like at least to show a first name at the end of the Issues article.

*There will be changes to the Lavender Letter website over the next couple of months. I have some additions to make that I feel you will all like. I'm not telling you what it is.....you'll have to keep checking back to find out!

Workshops....

SHOESTRING PRODUCTIONS

June 11, 2005 10 AM to 6 PM
Location: Highspire, PA.
Presented by Shoes
Cost: $95 pp

A powerful one-day workshop exploring the energetic capacity of the spirit. Master the art of engaging your spirit to find what is real for you. Embrace the exceptional human within you. As you journey in this workshop you will learn how to clear yourself of unwanted negativity and blocks, fill yourself with light, explore your personal energy, create a harmonic energy field with others, and access and trust your intuition. At the end of the workshop there will be a healing circle, utilizing toning to bring about inner peace, comfort and healing.

Tools of the Trade
June 25 - 26, 2005 9 AM to 5 PM
Presented by Ruth Touhey (Three-In-One Facilitator)
Ruth is from Bellows Falls, VT, and conducts private and group sessions focused on gaining control over past experiences and future choices.
Location: Highspire, PA.
Cost: $200 (includes text)

This is the first required course in becoming a One Brain Facilitator. The second required course is Basic One Brain, which will be offered at a TBA date.

Did you know that choices we make every day, both personally and professionally, are influenced by past traumas and joys that we have experienced? All of the choices that we make today will create our future, whether it's good for us or not! By defusing the traumas of our past and reinforcing the joys, we will become able to make the choices which will create the kind of future we really want to have.

In Tools of the Trade you will learn how to help yourself and others achieve lifetime goals by learning new attitudes and putting them into practice. You will learn how to muscle test (Kinesiology) and defuse self-doubt and negative emotional charges on issues from the past. The two days will take you to a deep realization that each of us is the only valid Source for personal choice, and that no one owns, or can choose, for anyone else.

If you would like more information, or a registration form for either workshop, please send an e-mail to: ICANCAN@aol.com.

OYSTER MILL PLAYHOUSE

TAKING LEAVE

JUNE 3 - 12TH, 2005

Eliot Pryne is packing what he thinks is a suitcase and leaving what he thinks is a hotel. In the early stages of Alzheimer's disease, he is "taking leave" of the real world and imagining a new one. His alter ego, seen only by the audience, charts this final voyage speaking as Eliot once did when he was the leading authority on Shakespeare's King Lear. The visitation of his 3 daughters, who must decide his future, forms the central event of this oddly comic, yet moving and poignant family drama. Filled with the often-farcical behavior that goes along with this disease, and decorated with "good talk", this play had audiences laughing, weeping and finally standing and cheering. There will be a talkback with the cast and representatives from the Alzheimer's Assoc. after the performances on June 4, 5, 9, 10 & 11. Ticket prices are $12. There is a 2 for $20 special on Thursday, June 9th. For ticket info: (717) 737-6768, or www.oystermill.com.

Anna has taken control of her life. As a lesbian, she has taken a major step toward protecting the future that she wants.

If you could do the same, would you?

Working with her financial professional, Anna was able to:

- Ensure that she remains financially secure;
- Potentially reduce the amount of taxes she pays;
- Pay for medical needs, without depleting her savings, should she become ill;
- Retain control over her decisions, even if she becomes incapacitated.

As a lesbian financial professional, I understand the unique concerns facing gay men and lesbians. We will assess your present situation, explore your future goals, and develop a financial strategy that can help you get to where you want to be.

To set up a free consultation and to find out how I can help you achieve your dreams, please give me a call for more information.
