Nick is a single, Italian-American guy from New Jersey whose parents have retired and moved to Florida. He still lives in New Jersey and visits both sets of grandparents every Sunday for dinner. When he tells them he's been offered a job that would take him to Seattle, the news doesn't sit very well with his beloved, but meddling, grandparents. They begin a series of schemes intended to keep him in Jersey, including bringing to dinner the lovely - and single - Caitlin O'Hare as bait. ### GRETNA THEATRE GASLIGHT (ANGEL STREET) JULY 12 - JULY 23, 2005

Our version of this Victorian thriller is known by its movie name, "Gaslight", but whatever you call it, it remains a psychological thriller with a melodramatic flair. It gives us both the plot and theatrical machinations of a Victorian thriller and the contemporary access to the goings-on in the Manningham household, all the while revolving around its infamous gaslight! Uncharacteristically Victorian, it raises serious issues of abuse and manipulation - thus allowing such worn devices to transform into modern and gripping theatrical metaphor. Tickets are $18 - $28, and are available by calling (717) 964-3627.

Anna has taken control of her life. As a lesbian, she has taken a major step toward protecting the future that she wants.

If you could do the same, would you?

Working with her financial professional, Anna was able to:

- Ensure that she remains financially secure;
- Potentially reduce the amount of taxes she pays;
- Pay for medical needs, without depleting her savings, should she become ill;
- Retain control over her decisions, even if she becomes incapacitated.

As a lesbian financial professional, I understand the unique concerns facing gay men and lesbians. We will assess your present situation, explore your future goals, and develop a financial strategy that can help you get to where you want to be.

To set up a free consultation and to find out how I can help you achieve your dreams, please give me a call for more information.

LITTLE THEATRE OF MECHANICSBURG WILDE LILLIE JULY 21 - 24, 2005

Oscar Wilde was probably the most noted and notorious dramatist of the 19th century. While it has been more than 100 years since his death, many of his plays are still being produced today. Wilde Lillie supposes that since Wilde's demise, he has been brooding about the ignominy of his later years. In this dramatic fantasy, the spirit of Lillie Langtry, the most celebrated beauty of her day, visits Wilde to convince him to move on. When these two legendary figures get together, sparks fly, as they enact scenes from their lives as well as from Wilde's writings. Tickets are $10 and available by calling: (717) 766-0535.

Health Spotlight....

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM THE SUN

Are you one of those people who go out in the beginning of summer and get a bad sunburn because you think that it will help you tan faster? I know a few people that really do that the first couple times they are out in the summer. They feel it's a faster way to a nice tan.

Actually, it just might be a faster way to getting skin cancer. Sunburn is actually a sign of skin injury. Too much sun can cause sunburn, wrinkles, freckles, skin texture changes, dilated blood vessels, rash problems and worst of all, deadly skin cancers.

Learn how to enjoy the sun safely. The American Academy of Dermatology offers these suggestions:

- * Use a broad-spectrum sunscreen with a SPF of at least 15 on all exposed skin, including the lips, even on cloudy days.
- * If exposed to water, either through swimming or sweating, a water-resistant sunscreen should be used.
- * Reapply sunscreen frequently.
- * Wear a broad-brimmed hat and sunglasses.
- * Sit in the shade whenever possible.
- * Wear protective, tightly-woven clothing.
- * Plan outdoor activities early or late in the day to avoid peak sunlight hours between 10 AM and 4 PM.

To learn more about skin cancer, please visit the American Academy of Dermatology's website: www.aad.org.

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!
