positively hiv is proud to partner with Lily White & Co. for this unusual fund-raising project. This special flyer offers unique items from the HIVnALIVE Gift Shop, significant proceeds from which will be donated directly to Lily White to use at its discretion -- whether for administrative and operations expenses, continued support of their fund-raising efforts for the Harrisburg Residential AIDS Task Force, or other ways as determined by its board of directors.

Additional information about positively hiv is available at the HIVnALIVE website or upon request to the organization. Your continued support of the community is greatly appreciated.

HIVnALIVE Celebrity Cookbook

The 600 recipe HIVnALIVE Celebrity Cookbook includes recipes from more than 150 celebrities and notables as well as contributions from electronic friends throughout the world. Attractively published in a 3-ring binder -- including an easel, page protectors and an America Online start-up membership (1,000 of which were donated directly by Steve Case, AOL's CEO for this project) -- this cookbook will be a welcomed addition in any kitchen. We gratefully acknowledge the invaluable assistance of the Celebrity Outreach Foundation (Agoura Hills CA) with this project throughout the past several months.

*A Few Tricks Along The Way:
Daily Reflections for Gay Men, Queer
Boys, Magnificent Queens, and the People Who Love Them*

... by Gary J. Stern, donated by The Crossing Press (Freedom CA). These are not meditations but reflections. One for each day of the year (but like a good box of chocolates, it's difficult not to browse and gorge.) A reflection on "faggots" is a time with an ancient wizard/shaman after the dancing has stopped: "We are the few who cross over to other realms. We were singled out, initiated, and arouse flaming passions nearly everywhere we go. ... We flame. We break the rules. We hold power and sway. We bring life-giving erotic, spiritual and utilitarian fire to people."

Dolphin Logo T-Shirts and Notecards

Many today are continually fascinated and intrigued by Dolphins, their intelligence and even the roles in which they appear in movies. We see them as the 'humans of the sea,' perhaps stirring connections to what some believe a mythological lost continent called Atlantis.

Others appreciate their language, sense of humor and the perception of unseen and unique abilities to draw gently close to those that need healing energies. According to the traditions of America's indigenous people, the Dolphin represents manna; the breath of life, life force itself.

"Dolphin is the keeper of the sacred breath of life ... teaches us how to use life-manna through our breath ... revitalizes each cell and organ, and breaks the limits and dimensions of physical reality.

"If Dolphin has appeared to you today ... you are to be a link to some solution for the Children of Earth ... this can mean a time of communication with the rhythms of nature. Imitate Dolphin and ride the waves of laughter, spreading joy in the world."

*Medicine Cards, Jamie Sams & David Carson.
Published by Bear & Company
Sante Fe, New Mexico.*

Historians can confirm the origination of the inverted pink triangle: during the Holocaust it appeared on black arm bands which marked individuals as "artists and intellectuals". During the same time, our Jewish brothers and sisters were marked with black arm bands emblazoned with a yellow hexagram (the Star of David).

An old situation infused with life force co-creates a new and escalated energy. Purple indicates a higher resonance of energy; a rebirth; raised consciousness. Violet and Indigo -- shades of purple -- are the colors associated with the brow and crown energy centers of the physical body.

To us, the Dolphin Logo assimilates all of these characteristics into a new form. From the realm of oppression, Dolphin has delivered us onto the shores of a sea of possibilities. The opportunity awaits.

It is up to each of us ... reaching, learning and discovering the secret treasures of physical regeneration.

Does the story of the Dolphin Logo simply feel right to you? Do you have a thing for dolphins or, do you just like the dolphin logo? A partial listing of Dolphin Logo apparel and other items appears on the order form. Custom orders can be considered with sufficient notice. Inquiries from non-profit organizations and retailers are encouraged.

Red Ribbon or Rainbow Lapel Pins

Celebrate your diversity and pride with jewelry and lapel pins. Approximately 1.25" in length, each is gold color with high quality enamel finish in either solid red or the colors of the Rainbow. Special thanks to Rosenblum & Associates (Pensacola FL) for its assistance with this product line. Several additional pride and awareness jewelry items are available dependant upon current inventory on-hand.

Red Ribbon Stationery

AIDS awareness is not just something for awards shows on television. Show your empathy and concern with this unique stationery custom-designed for laser and ink-jet printers. Each package contains 25 sheets and white booklet envelopes.

TechToys Notebook Computers, Add-ons and Peripherals

Through special arrangement with a national computer distributor and Dunne Consulting, positively hiv is offering an extensive selection of notebook and desktop computers, printers, modems and other peripherals (modems, laser printers, etc.) at 10% over dealer cost. Information and terms of sale for this unique fund-raising project is available at the HIVnALIVE website or can be requested via fax or email.

This special program is available to supporters of Lily White until October 15, 1996 -- 15% of the TechToys proceeds are allocated to Lily White when your inquiry or sale is initiated by the order form included in this flyer.
