Hello again, it's newsletter time again. Hope all you nice people out there have had a good month. Well here goes--- our last meeting was a little larger than last month. We are back to our winter schedule again, the last Sunday of the month at 2:00 P.M. at Tom's house. We kicked around the possibility of buying our own mimeograph machine. A Committee was appointed to price a second hand machine. A second committee was appointed to run several bake sales to raise money for this purpose. You can bet your bottom dollar it will be the best darn bake sale to hit these parts in a long time. So come on girls forget the calories and eat, eat, eat, and help make it a huge success.

We are going to make our second annual trip to the Bloomsburg Fair on Friday Sept. 30th, we will leave Tom's house promptly at 6:00 P.M. Those who went last year will remember the fantastic time we had, after all, out of all the thousands of people who go to the fair how many are invited out for the evening by the Carry people till 4:00 A.M. the next morning.

Our annual Halloween party will be held on Oct. 29th at Tom's house beginning at 8:00 P.M. It will be a covered dish and B.U.V.B. Costumes are requested, but if you would rather not, it's O.K., but it is a lot more fun in costume. We are asking a 50 cents donation this year to buy door prizes. Come anyway even if you don't have the bread. We love you any way.

Don't forget to watch for the T.V. interview with our director and one of our favorite girls. It should be aired this week on Channel 22 at either the 6:00 or 11:00 o'clock news. Till we meet in this column again, peace and love to you all
