OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of the faculty, staff and students of Harrisburg Area Community College, I welcome you to our Wildwood Campus. We're pleased to be the host site again this year for the Pride Festival, an event which brings thousands of people together for a day of celebration and friendship.

HACC is committed to creating an inclusive environment where everyone is welcome regardless of age, race, sexual orientation, gender or disability. Valuing and promoting diversity is one of our college wide priorities. We are equally committed to the principles of creating a student-centered learning environment where student success remains our top priority; encouraging faculty and staff development to continuously enhance the level of learning in our classrooms; and maintaining quality and consistency of standards across all of our campuses and centers.

On behalf of the entire College, I wish you a successful event and I encourage you to return to Harrisburg Area Community College to take advantage of our comprehensive educational, training and cultural opportunities.

Sincerely,

Paul B. Hurley, Jr., Ph.D.
Acting President

House of Representatives COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA HARRISBURG

It is my distinct pleasure to welcome the participants of the PRIDE festival of Central Pennsylvania to Harrisburg. As state representative for the 103rd Legislative District, I am pleased to have been asked to participate in this year's event and sincerely wish much success to this special gathering.

Harrisburg should be proud of its role as host for the PRIDE Festival. As capitol city, Harrisburg serves the state as a leader not only in government, but in the arts, in business, and in many statewide issues of social importance. The PRIDE Festival's choice of Harrisburg points to this city's sensitivity to the causes on which this gathering meets. Harrisburg has long been a place of tolerance. The gay and lesbian community of this city have enjoyed an unmistakable air of tolerance and open-mindedness here that makes this city a great site for this festival.

The PRIDE Festival of Central Pennsylvania highlights the social advances made toward the widening acceptance of differing lifestyles. These accomplishments, though still incomplete, deserve celebration. With that in mind, I am please to join in those festivities and offer my personal salutations and best wishes to all the participants.

Sincerely,

RONALD I. BUXTON
State Representative
103rd District

Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Among the most fundamentally important of this Nation's founding tenets is its unquestioned championship and protection of individual rights; and

WHEREAS,

This vital democratic freedom is predicated upon belief in the higher ideal that all persons, regardless of their race, color, creed, ethnicity or sexual preference, can equally contribute to the betterment of our society and to receive the benefits of such efforts; and

WHEREAS,

Regardless of inherent social marginalizations, the Capital Region has been and is substantively enhanced by the contributions of its gay and lesbian community; and

WHEREAS,

Appropriately so, this region's gay and lesbian communities work cooperatively through the Central Pennsylvania Pride Coalition to better heighten public awareness of the positive impact of the gay and lesbian community, and collectively celebrate these accomplishments at the annual Pride Festival, Central Pennsylvania's largest and oldest such fete, this year slated for July 26th on the campus of Harrisburg Area Community College---this state's first and largest community institution of higher learning; now therefore be it hereby designated and

PROCLAIMED

That Saturday, July 26, 1997, be declared

PRIDE FESTIVAL DAY

In and for the citizens of the City of Harrisburg, Capital of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with all citizens urged to recognize and appreciate the many contributions of this region's gay and lesbian citizens

Dear Friends:

It's summer once again and thoughts turn to the beach, vacation and pride festivals. For us here in the mid-state, it means another opportunity for the area's gays, lesbians, bisexuals, and transgendered population, along with their friends and family, to come together and celebrate the diversity each and every one represents. For many who participated and visited last year, the '96 festival was a triumph and an event much talked about months afterward.

We are pleased to return to the HACC campus and are excited at the prospect of providing a much larger, more dynamic than ever before! As more vendors line the walkways, as more ancillary events complete the festival, and as our headliner acts (BETTY & Y'ALL) prepare to take the stage, I am sure that everyone present will feel an overwhelming sense of pride in themselves, their community and their supporters.

On behalf of the steering committee of the 1997 Central Pennsylvania Pride Festival, I sincerely thank our underwriters and sponsors for helping us and the community draw closer together in the hopes of one day establishing everlasting unity.

Please feel free to call us if you wish to reserve space at the festival. Also call us if there is anything we can do to make your visit a comfortable one. See you July 26th!

1997 Festival Chair

Do You Feel Lucky? How about winning a chance to spend Labor Day weekend at Rehoboth's Renegade? Want to trim up with a brand new bicycle? And how are you set for cash? Will $1,000 do ya good?

The Neptune Lounge, (268 North St., Harrisburg), is selling tickets for the chance to win 2 nights and 2 days at the Renegade as well as a $50 gift certificate to Rehoboth Beach's Cloud 9 restaurant. Chances are $1.00 each.

A 21-speed Hardrock bicycle is the prize being given away courtesy of The Strawberry Cafe, (704 N. Third St., Harrisburg). Chances are $1.00 each or 7 for $5.00!

The members of the Pride Committee may be holding your opportunity to win a minimum of $1,000 in the first ever 50/50 raffle. Call 238-8112 for more information.

Tickets are currently being sold and will be available for purchase the day of the Festival. All prizes will be given away at the Festival on July 26th. Winners need not be present to win either of the prizes. Purchase of tickets for any of the raffles by any member of the 1997 Central Pennsylvania Pride Festival Committee is prohibited. All proceeds benefit the 1997 Central Pennsylvania Pride Festival.
