WELCOME ...

As president of the Central Pennsylvania Womyn's Chorus, I join with all the singers, Artistic Director Dan Krynak, Accompanist Jeffrey Cogan and the entire board in welcoming you to our concert, A Winter's Walk.

We wish you the happiest, most meaningful holiday season.

While each singer may come to the Chorus for a different reason - perhaps for the camaraderie, or to grow in their musicianship or to be a part of a great performance - they are united in the love of singing, and they are showing you that love tonight.

We are grateful for a hard-working Board of Directors, new and veteran alike, who enable singers to keep on singing. Each brings a wealth of experience and ideas, as we adapt to changes and meet challenges to keep the arts and our voice strong in our community. We thank outgoing president Cathy Nelson, secretary Lucy Twitchell and Board members Jessica Seminara and Yvonne Rothstein for their years of outstanding service.

This month, sadly, we will bid farewell and best wishes to Artistic Director Dan Krynak, who helped found the Chorus in 1993, led the Chorus for three years earlier this decade, left the area, then returned to direct again in 2008. Dan has been faithful to the Chorus in so many ways, not only preparing us for major concerts but also expanding the Chorus' reach in the community at many additional performances and working countless hours of fundraising. Thank you, Dan; we are grateful for your years of commitment and musical talents.

We are grateful and feel most blessed for you, our loyal audience. You keep us moving forward to give voice to our community. We encourage everyone to visit the Chorus website - www.cpwchorus.org early and often. Check out our new look (thank you, Pam Smith!) and find information and discounts on upcoming Chorus events.

Enjoy the concert!

Cynthia Swanson

Central Pennsylvania Womyn's Chorus

Dan Krynak, Artistic Director, was instrumental in founding the CPWC in 1993, and served on the board for several years. He directed the Harrisburg Men's Chorus for 10 years and in 2000 became director of the CPWC for three years. He led the two choruses in several major collaborations: Bandari, an African-based celebration of building community; Boys and Girls with Stories, a lesbian and gay musical; and in December 2000, singing with Judy Collins. He holds a Master's of Church Music from the University of Southern California and a Bachelor's degree from Westminster Choir College.

Cheryl Huber, Assistant Director, has been a singer with CPWC since 2008. She recently retired after over 35 years as a public school music teacher, mainly with Eastern York School District. She holds a Bachelors Degree in Music Education from Susquehanna University and earned a Master's Equivalency from the PA Dept. of Education. She is a substitute church organist and choir director for York and Adams counties churches and an accompanist for York Little Theater.

Jeffrey J. Cogan, Accompanist, has a strong and diverse musical background. In 1981 after attending Pennsylvania State University, he enlisted in the United States Army Band Program and served in the military until retiring while at the United States Army War College. During his tours in the military, he performed on clarinet, saxophone, piano and organ for heads of state around the world in more than 20 countries and served three different administrations in Washington while assigned to the United States Army Band.

Additionally, he sang in the United States Army Soldier's Chorus in Europe and the United States and also served in a Combat Arms Armor Unit during the Persian Gulf War. He is a graduate of the Army College of Music in Virginia and currently is a Church Director of Music Ministries here in Harrisburg and is a private music educator in piano, organ, and clarinet.

Renee Bartholomew, Percussionist, plays percussion in many styles, including classical, jazz, drum and bugle corps, and rock. She was the drummer for the band Stone Soup and plays with many area groups.

A few notes about the music....

Familiar songs comfort us during the holidays, so this concert features interesting arrangements of well-known favorites such as Sleigh Ride, Let It Snow, It's Beginning To Look Like Christmas, Santa Claus Is Coming To Town and Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy. Here is some information about a few of the other pieces.

A Winter Walk evokes a night with bright moonlight and slowly falling snow. Lush harmonies and the use of dissonance "take your breath away."

To the composer of Stopping By Woods On A Snowy Evening, the Robert Frost poem is symbolic of one's constant struggle for mastery of craft. While it is good to indulge in what brings us joy, we must also know when to let go of celebrations and return to our responsibilities.

Midwinter's Chill alternates minor and major keys to describe the iciness of the season with the hope and knowledge that winter will end and life will return.

God Bless My Family is reprised from our 2008 concert due to popular demand. The song was written at the height of the AIDS epidemic. Halloway is a well-known jazz and pop singer-songwriter.

Diane Benjamin, who wrote Love Comes Again, is a musician and composer living in Minneapolis. Her choral works include many pieces for women's voices, as well as some works for men's voices and SATB.

Chapua Kali Desemba, sung partly in Swahili, describes the joy of children running on the plains of windy, snowy Kilimanjaro in Tanzania, the highest mountain in Africa.
